STORAGE

keep refrigerated at all times, 1–4°C, and store upright. naturally carbonated, so open it chilled.

drink alive.
